NORTH METRO FIRE FIGHTERS “LOSE IT” FOR A GREAT CAUSE

Northglenn/Broomfield, CO—Beginning at noon on Friday, March 12, voluntary teams including personnel from North Metro Fire Rescue District will lose their hair in solidarity of children with cancer in order to raise funds for childhood cancer research through St. Baldrick’s Foundation. Their goal is to surpass the $500 fundraising benchmark they have set for themselves—can you help?

“These fire fighters are seeking the community’s financial support to shave their heads in honor of the brave children who battle cancer,” said Wendy Forbes, Public Information Officer for North Metro Fire Rescue. “Any contribution, big or small, will help make a difference.”

Community members wanting to donate towards the team or an individual fire fighter can visit www.northmetrofire.org and hit the leprechaun link to the Denver St. Baldrick Event. Get to know the participants and please help support them in their goal!

Citizens who have questions about North Metro's participation in this event may call Wendy Forbes at North Metro Fire Rescue Headquarters at (303) 452-9910. Funds from the St. Baldrick's Foundation have benefited the Children's Hospital of Denver.
