HOME FIRE DISPLACES RESIDENTS

Northglenn, CO—At approximately 9:30 a.m. this morning, North Metro Fire Rescue responded to a structure fire at a mobile home located at 11800 Wadsworth Boulevard, Unit 26 in Broomfield. North Metro crews found a single wide mobile property on fire and one adult female was taken to Avista Hospital for assessment of non-life threatening injuries.

The resident did report owning nine cats. Two did not survive the fire, two were found, and five are still missing from the scene. The fire was found to have originated in the bedroom area and spread throughout the trailer. The fire's cause is still under investigation.

The family living at this residence will be displaced. They are working on temporary living arrangements through local family members at this time.
