NORTH METRO FIRE RESCUE FIRE FIGHTER RECEIVES TOP HONOR

Broomfield/Northglenn, CO—On July 7, 2010 North Metro Fire Rescue Fire Fighter, Jeff Burke, received the 2010 “Terrorism Liaison Officer (TLO) of the Year ” award from the Colorado Information Analysis Center (CIAC). Burke has served as a TLO on behalf of the Fire District since 2009.

The TLO is an identified person within an organization who is responsible for coordinating terrorist and other criminal intelligence information through the Colorado Information Analysis Center and local law enforcement partners.

Burke was selected for this honor due to his role in sharing and collecting information in relation to local and global threats. The CIAC was created to protect Colorado citizens and critical infrastructure from all hazards, including terrorism. They are a centralized resource that collects, analyses, and disseminates all-hazards information to stakeholders throughout Colorado, and the United States.
