NORTH METRO SEEKS VOLUNTEERS (INCLUDING THOSE WITH MEDICAL BACKGROUNDS) FOR UNITED METHODIST CHURCH 9 HEALTH FAIR

Broomfield, CO—The Broomfield 9 Health Fairs are fast approaching and there are plenty of opportunities to get involved as a participant AND a volunteer. The 2011 Broomfield United Methodist event will be held on April 16 from 7:00 a.m. until noon and be located at the United Methodist Church at 545 W. 10th Avenue, Broomfield.

As sponsors for the Broomfield United Methodist 9 Health Fair for the 12th year, North Metro Fire Rescue is seeking volunteers age 18 or older to assist with this event. “Our staff has served as volunteer site coordinators for a decade,” said Wendy Forbes, Public Information Officer of North Metro Fire Rescue. “We realize the value of these low cost screening to our fixed income and time stretched communities—it’s a great event to support!”

Medical volunteers are always in demand, especially Nurse Practitioners, Registered Nurses, Physical Therapists and more; however those without medical training should not be discouraged from volunteering. Both medical and non-medical volunteers are needed! Lunch will be provided. Anyone interested in volunteering should contact Pam Kutchen at the North Metro Fire Rescue Training Center by calling (720) 887-0404.
