NORTH METRO PROMOTES ONE TO LIEUTENANT

Northglenn/Broomfield, CO—On August 17, 2010, Paramedic Bill Castonguay took his official oath of office and assumed the rank of Lieutenant for North Metro Fire Rescue District.

Lt. Bill Castonguay was hired by North Metro in October of 2001. Since the start of his employment nine years ago, Bill has worked to earn his Paramedic certification, and also dedicate his time to specialize and serve as a Wildland and Hazardous Materials team member.

In addition to his technical expertise, Lt. Castonguay has exhibited exceptional levels of customer service internally and externally to the organization. He was joined by his wife, two children, and extended family for his official badge pinning ceremony.

North Metro Fire Rescue is proud to promote Lt. Castonguay as he has demonstrated dedication to continued service and excellence through each individual act for the benefit of District citizens.
