NORTH METRO FIRE RESCUE GRADUATES SIX RECRUITS

Northglenn/Broomfield, CO—On Saturday, July 17, North Metro Fire Rescue District will proudly graduate six new firefighters. The class of six recently completed over 14 weeks of academy training and are set to begin their shifts on line at assigned stations throughout the Fire District. The new firefighters include:

Spring 2010 – Recruit Class
Lucas DeBroux
Shane Dougherty
Caleb Larson
Matthew Olig
Adam VanVolkinburg
Ryan Ziccarelli

This recruit group was the 3rd class in the history of the Fire District where all candidates were previously Paramedic certified. These individuals will continue their paramedic skills while now also incorporating their new knowledge as fire fighters, haz mat technicians and car seat safety technicians. “North Metro first responders are cross-trained to handle numerous forms of emergency assistance,” said Joe Bruce, North Metro Fire Chief. “These recruits are ready to contribute to the community with excellence.”

In addition, this class was the first to attend an academy conducted at the state-of-the-art North Metro Fire Rescue District Training Center. North Metro opened the doors to their first training center in October 2008 thanks to the support of taxpayers through the passage of a bond in May 2006.
