FIVE CANDIDATES RUNNING FOR FIRE DISTRICT BOARD

Northglenn/Broomfield, CO— Five candidates have filed paperwork to fill three open seats on the North Metro Fire Rescue Board of Directors in the May election. Although North Metro protects and responds to two municipalities, all District Directors serve at-large and the terms last for four years. The candidates who turned in self-nomination forms by the deadline are (with area of residence):

BOARD OF DIRECTOR CANDIDATES
(Three (3) Board positions are open)

Candidate	Residence	Office	Term
Robert E. Kammerzell	Northglenn	Director	4 years
Dennis D. Day	Broomfield	Director	4 years
Chrystine L. Kelley	Broomfield	Director	4 years
William C. Roberts	Broomfield	Director	4 years
Richard M. Perse, II	Broomfield	Director	4 years

“This is large field of candidates for the board election,” says Public Information Officer Wendy Forbes. “It should be an exciting race at an exciting time for us since the Fire District continues to make significant infrastructure changes through fulfilling the bond issue that passed in the May 2006 election.”
